The Stars

One of the most crucial decisions for brides-to-be is selecting the perfect entertainment for the wedding reception. Taking a cue from all of our past brides we've featured in the pages of our magazine, here are the top performers that brides just can't seem to get enough of! Each of these live bands can readily be booked through Box Talent Agency anywhere in the state!

The Groove Merchants cover music from Stevie Wonder, Chicago and Earth Wind and Fire to all types of top 40 music hits of today! This 9-piece horn band quickly realized there was a connection to the audience who truly appreciated the complex harmonies and tight grooves that existed in their set lists. The Groove Merchants employ the talents of some of Oklahoma City's finest jazz, rock and country players who know how to keep the party hopping.
